

MEDIA RELEASE

Letter to the Author of the Letter to the Father

by TRISTAN FOSTER

Publication date: 6 August 2018

Transmission Press is proud to bring you a debut collection from one of the most original new voices in Australian fiction.

Eels, snakes, artists, photos, writers, sprinters, dead men, thieves, possums, sphinxes, whales, fathers, mothers, children, neighbours, lovers, churches, rivers, oceans, devils, heroes, stones, fur, fish, skin, blood.

Astrologers and mandarins. Delhi and Parramatta, Byzantium and Cappadocia.

The texts in this collection hunt down the lost and the dead, tracing their paths from small apartments in the suburbs of Sydney to Malpensa Airport in Milan, bearing witness to what they get up to when our backs are turned.

By turns strange, beautiful and beguiling, Letter To The Author of the Letter to the Father is an outstanding collection of short fictions from one of Australia's most exciting new voices.

Format: Paperback, pp. 175
ISBN: 978-0-6480374-8-4
Publication date: 6 August 2018
Publisher: Transmission Press
RRP: $22.95

To request an advance copy,
please send an email to:

Wendy Cavenett
Publisher, Transmission Press
transmissionpress@gmail.com

'Daring, compelling and utterly original. Tristan Foster is a unique voice in Australian writing'
- Ryan O'Neill

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Tristan Foster is a writer from Sydney. His fiction and criticism has been published in The Paris Review, Music & Literature, Words Without Borders, Asmptote, Overland, gorse, The Lifted Brow, Tincture Journal, Seizure and elsewhere. He is the co-editor-in-chief of 3:AM Magazine.

Cover image: Knox Bertie

TRANSMISSION PRESS

w: transmissionpress.com
i: @transmissionpress
t: @T__Press